Hi Richard, that is fine, but please edit the letter so it says that the parties have now finalized the settlement agreement. Right now it says the parties have not finalized. Thanks, Linna

This email originated from outside of Loeb's Network.

See attached with your revisions. I just added a line saying that the Defendants consent to this extension. Can I file this? Thanks.

Thanks Richard. We will send this to our clients for their signatures.

We will agree to the attached letter with the following changes:

We represent Plaintiff, Glen Craig, in the above in captioned case. We write to request a final 3-week extension of the deadline to restore the action to the Court's calendar. We believe extraordinary circumstances exist for this extension because the parties have now finalized the settlement agreement, and Mr. Craig signed the agreement today. The 3-week extension is necessary so that Defendants can execute the agreement and the parties can effectuate the terms of the settlement agreement, including filing a stipulated dismissal of this action.

Thanks,

Linna

Subject: Signed Agreement- Craig v. UMG et al.

Hi Barry and Linna,

Attached please find the signed agreement by my client and myself. We look forward to receiving a copy of the final executed agreement. I know it is the holidays and New Year so your clients might a little time to sign the agreement. I am attaching a short letter to the Court requesting another 3 weeks to file the stipulation of dismissal. Please let me know if you consent so I can add that to the letter and I can file.

Thank you.
